Welcome!

Something for everyone...

For Bury St Edmunds Literature Festival's 7th year, we are delighted to be presenting the biggest and boldest Bury St Edmunds Literature Festival yet!

At the heart of the festival is a wide array of fabulous author events. There's fiction in every genre from fêted authors, bestselling authors, debut authors, local authors and authors who are appearing in the area for the first time. For those who prefer non-fiction we are excited to present riveting and rigorous author discussions that cover everything from the enduring spirit of Ukraine to an exploration of the impact reading can have on our happiness!

For children, we have free ticketed events for all age groups; there's sensory storytelling for babies and preschoolers, interactive storytelling workshops for kids and an exploration of expression through poetry, rap and verse for young people. All this to complement an expanded programme for local schools that covers all Key Stages, with brilliant author-led onsite school events presented as part of our creative writing competition.

This year, as has always been our goal, we're expanding beyond author events and forging new partnerships to deliver exciting new workshops and events. We're delighted to be working with Gold Dust Writer Mentoring to offer our first Creative Writing Workshops, Wensum Trust, Usborne Books, Bury St Edmunds Library and Waterstones Bury St Edmunds Arc to expand our children's programme, Abbeygate Cinema for film screenings and Bury Tour Guides who have curated a very special guided walk taking in sites of literary note across the town. In addition to this, we are delighted to be offering a half-day gardening workshop with author/gardeners Sally Morgan and Becky Searle which is the perfect practical accompaniment to their author talk on their books that tackle gardening for climate change.

We hope there is something for everyone.

Now it's over to you for the difficult bit...deciding what you're going to see at this year's Bury Lit Fest!

A message from our Chair

I am so looking forward to this year's Festival!

Kate has put together a cornucopia of incredible authors, known & to be discovered, for us to enjoy.

This Festival would not be possible without the hard work and support of many people and organisations and it is my pleasure to take this chance to thank them.

Kate and the other members of our small and dedicated Committee: Susan Pocklington, Jackie Burnett and Danielle Patrick, you are all amazing! Our Honorary Patrons, Nicola Upson and Margaret Meyer and our Founding Patrons, Mike & Judy Spenser-Morris; your support has helped us grow this Festival to what it is today.

The Trustees of the Unitarian Meeting House, Greene & Greene Solicitors, Harris & Harris Books and West Suffolk College: thank you for your support throughout the years. Thanks to Gina Long, for her advice and support in seeking to grow our network. New sponsors Martin & Co and Chassis Cab: so good to have you on board.

We are grateful to Pigeon Investment who are sponsoring our event with Sarah Perry, to SunEnviro who are sponsoring our event with Louis de Bernières, to St Edmundsbury Wealth Management who are sponsoring our event with Wendy Holden, Bury Developments who are sponsoring our event with Amy Jeffs, Ashtons Legal who are sponsoring our event with Jennifer Saint and Ferdia Lennon and Wensum Trust for supporting our creative writing competition.

Thank you to the Bury St Edmunds Town Council for its grant support and to our partners Gold Dust Writers, Bury St Edmunds Tour Guides, West Suffolk College, Bury St Edmunds Library, the Angel Hotel, Waterstones Bury St Edmunds Arc, Usborne Books, The Apex, Theatre Royal and Abbeygate Cinema.

Thank you to our volunteers – you know who you are – your calm and committed support during the Festival is invaluable.

And finally, thank you to you, our community, for supporting this Festival and helping us spread the love of books and writing in East Anglia.

The Teacher of Auschwitz

Wendy Holden

AUTHOR EVENT

Drawn from archives and survivor testimonies, historian and biographer Wendy Holden tells the inspirational and uplifting true story of Fredy Hirsch: The Teacher of Auschwitz.

At the dark heart of the Holocaust, there was a wooden hut whose walls were painted with cartoons; a place where children sang, staged plays and wrote poetry. Safely inside, but still in the shadow of the chimneys, they were given better food, kept free of vermin, and were even taught meditation to imagine full stomachs and a day without fear. The man who became their guiding light was a young Jewish prisoner named Fredy Hirsch. But being a teacher in such a brutal concentration camp was no mean feat. Whether it was begging the SS for better provisions, or hiding his homosexuality from his persecutors, he risked his life every day for one thing: to protect the children from the mortal danger they all faced.

The Art of a Lie

Laura Shepherd-Robinson

Award-winning, Sunday Times and USA Today bestselling author Laura Shepherd-Robinson talks to Bury St Edmunds Literature Founder Julia Wakelam about her fourth novel, The Art of a Lie.

London, 1749. Following the murder of her husband in a violent street robbery, Hannah Cole is struggling to keep her head above water. When she learns that her husband had a large sum of money in his bank account that she knew nothing about, the surprise is extremely welcome. But her husband's unexpected windfall attracts the attention of author-turned-magistrate Henry Fielding, who suspects the money was illicitly acquired. Unless Hannah can prove otherwise, her inheritance will be confiscated. As she and Devereux work to uncover the secrets of her husband's double life, their friendship opens Hannah to speculation and gossip, locking her into a battle of wits more devastating than anything, even her husband's murder.

Chris Whitaker

The author of the New York Times and Sunday Times bestselling author Chris Whitaker will be in conversation with local author Kate Sawyer about his most recent novel, the million copy bestselling All The Colours Of The Dark.

A sweeping coming-of-age tale, an epic love story and a searing thriller, all unfolding on a vast canvas. There is a moment when childhood ends. For Joseph 'Patch' Macauley and Saint Brown, it comes late one summer as Patch is abducted from their hometown. Devastated, Saint devotes her days to finding her best friend. Held in total darkness, Patch is hopeless and alone - until he feels a hand in his. Though he never sees the girl, they fall in love. When he escapes, he's left with only her voice and name - and promises to spend the rest of his life searching for her. Over a lifetime driven by obsession, Patch and Saint must sacrifice everything for redemption, justice, and, ultimately, love - even if that means losing each other forever ...

2.30pm Angel Hill opposite the Abbeygate Literary Bury St Edmunds Walking Tour with Bury Tour Guides

Across the centuries since the mighty Abbey of St Edmund was founded, a surprising number of writers have been inspired by the town in which it sits. From a medieval cellarer right up to a 21st century gothic-rock star, Bury St Edmunds has been the subject matter for novels, poems, songs, plays and occasionally a rip-roaring insult!

This town-centre walk will last around 90 minutes and be illustrated with recorded extracts of some of the works featured.

During the summer months, Bury Tour Guides offer regular daily town tours by trained and experienced guides telling the amazing history of Bury St Edmunds. Throughout the rest of the year they also offer specialist tours such as the Ghostly & Macabre tour; Masters of the Air tour; Foodie tours and many others. www.burystedmundstourguides.org

Silence of The Gods: The Untold History of Europe's Last Pagan Peoples

Francis Young will be in conversation with Alex Wright, his publisher at Cambridge University Press, about his most recent book, Silence of the Gods.

The formal conversion to Christianity in 1387 of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania seemingly marked the end of Europe's last 'pagan' peoples. But the reality was different. Pre-Christian religions endured and indeed continued to flourish for an astonishing five centuries. Silence of the Gods tells the remarkable story of these forgotten people, who responded creatively to Christianity's challenge but for centuries stopped short of embracing it, uncovering stories of fierce resistance, unlikely survival and considerable ingenuity.

Constructing a Witch Helen Ivory

followed by Open Mic in association with Poetry Aloud

Helen Ivory's sixth collection Constructing a Witch fixes on the monstrosity and the scapegoating of women and on the fear of ageing femininity. The witch appears as the barren, child-eating hag; she is a lustful seductress luring men to a path of corruption; she is a powerful or cantankerous woman whose cursing must be silenced by force.

These bewitching poems explore the witch archetype and the witch as human woman and investigate witch tourism, the witch as outsider, cultural representations of the witch, female power and disempowerment, the menopause, and how the female body has been used and misunderstood for centuries.

Following Helen's performance both the bar and the stage will be open for our annual Open-Mic where the audience will be able to read their own poetry and share their spoken word and works in progress. Please book your slot on arrival: spaces are limited and will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

Do You Have A Novel in You? with Jill Dawson

It is said that 'everyone has at least one novel in them', but how does one go about getting it out? Novelist Jill Dawson talks you through what it takes to write a novel and helps you form a plan to make your dreams of being published, a reality.

Jill Dawson is the author of twelve novels, one poetry collection and the editor of six anthologies of poetry and stories. She is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature and has been a Costa Judge, and taught creative writing in many different settings. Jill is the founder of Gold Dust Writer Mentoring.

How To Write Memoir with Midge Gillies

How to tell the story of a life? Is it best to start at the beginning, middle or end? What are the advantages – or not – of a prologue? Memoirist and creative writing teacher Midge Gillies will look at structure and the many options for writing narrative nonfiction when it comes to memoir.

Midge Gillies specialises in mentoring and teaching memoir and creative non-fiction. She also teaches for Cambridge University and on a memoir course she designed for Granta. She has written ten books; her most recent, Atlantic Furies is about the pilots who raced to be the first woman to cross the Atlantic by air.

Structuring Your Novel with Louise Doughty

Plot and narrative structure are the subjects that most often baffle new writers – with good reason. In this practical workshop, Louise Doughty talks you through story construction, screenwriting models – and how to fix a plot that's going wrong.

Louise Doughty is the author of ten novels, most recently A Bird in Winter. Her previous books include Platform Seven, filmed for ITVX; Black Water, a New York Times Notable Book of the Year; the bestseller Apple Tree Yard, adapted as a hit miniseries for BBC One; and Whatever You Love, nominated for the Costa Novel Award and the Women's Prize for fiction.

East Anglian Voices

Ashley Hickson-Lovence, Emily Buchanan & Katie Ward

Q: What do a moving and musical debut collection of poetry exploring grief, love and the power of community, an unputdownable eco-feminist debut that examines the climate crisis and a compelling original novel that explores the philosophical issue of the mind-body problem have in common? A: All of their authors live, work and are inspired by our region!

Join Lisa Brennan from Suffolk Community Libraries as she sits down and chats to East Anglian based authors Ashley Hickson-Lovence, Emily Buchanan and Katie Ward about their brilliant books and what being a writer in the region means with regards to networks, opportunities and inspiration.

Books: Ashley Hickson Lovence: Why I Am Not A Bus Driver (Bad Betty Press), Wild East (Penguin), Your Show (Faber), The 392 (Own It!), Emily Buchanan: Send Flowers (Verve), Katie Ward: Pathways, Girl Reading (Little, Brown)

Strong Roots; Bread & War -The Enduring Spirit of Ukraine
Olia Hercules & Felicity Spector chaired by Nic Miller

AUTHOR
EVENT

When Russia launched its full-scale invasion of Ukraine in 2022 Ukrainian chef Olia Hercules decided it was finally time to tell her family's history. Strong Roots is the story of a century in Ukraine told through four generations of one extraordinary family. It lays bare the compromises and betrayals of generations struggling and surviving through war, peace, invasion and exile, and is an uplifting reminder of how much the human spirit can endure.

Olia will be in conversation with TV producer and journalist Felicity Spector, whose new book Food and War asks how you source, cook and take joy in food in the midst of war and loss?

Books: Olia Hercules: Strong Roots, Home Food, Summer Kitchens (Bloomsbury), Kaukasis, Mamushka (Octopus), Felicity Spector: Bread & War (Duckworth Books)

Boosting Biodiversity in the Garden

Gardening Workshop with Becky Searle and Sally Morgan

Join author-gardeners Becky Searle and Sally Morgan for this ½ day workshop in which you will learn how to boost the diversity in your garden, no matter its size.

During this four hour workshop you will

- ➔ Discover the secrets of soil as you explore the complexity of its life and how to protect your soil from harmful chemicals by gardening organically.
- ➔ Learn about diversity in planting and how to attract pollinators and predators. You will discuss food plants, flower structure, mini habitats, life cycle stages of beneficial insects and being able to identify them.
- ➔ Find out about the role of water in the garden to boost biodiversity (micro and full ponds), the role of dead wood in managing water and creating a resilient garden.

And, as an additional practical element, you will make a small minibeast habitat to take away.

The workshop will include a break for afternoon tea delivered to the workshop venue provided by FOLK CAFE. Menu: selection of sandwiches, sausage roll, scone with cream & folk compote, a cake bite, tea and filter coffee.

Sally Morgan has a background in botany and ecology. She has always gardened naturally but is increasingly interested in how climate change is affecting our gardens and exploring ways that we can make our growing spaces more climate-resilient. Sally writes regularly for gardening and smallholding magazines and is the former editor of Organic Farming magazine for the Soil Association.

Becky Searle is a freelance gardening writer and kitchen gardener. She has a regular feature in Kitchen Garden Magazine and writes for Gardeners World Magazine, Homes and Gardens Magazine and Telegraph Recommends. Her own garden has been featured in The Guardian and Modern Gardens Magazine. In 2022 and 2023, Becky was shortlisted for the Garden Media Guild's Environmental Journalist of the Year.

The King's Mother Annie Garthwaite

Following her hugely popular appearance at Bury St Edmunds Literature Festival 2023 with her debut novel, author and historian Annie Garthwaite returns with The King's Mother, the follow up to Cecily.

Through blood and battle Edward has gained England's throne - king by right and conquest - eighteen years old and unstoppable. Cecily, having piloted her family's rise to power, stands beside him as England's first King's Mother. But to win a throne is not to keep it, and war is come again. As brother betrays brother, and trusted cousins turn treacherous, other mothers rise up to fight for other sons. Cecily must focus her will to defeat every challenge. Wherever they come from. Whatever the cost. For there can only be one King, and only one King's Mother. From the Wars of the Roses to the dawn of the Tudor age, this is a story of mothers and sons, of maternal ferocity and female ambition - of all they can build and all they can destroy.

GOLD DUST
MENTORING WRITERS

How To Get Published

Jill Dawson - Gold Dust Writers, Emma Shercliff - Laxfield Literary Agency & Phoebe Morgan - Hodder & Stoughton

Our day of writing workshops for aspiring authors concludes with a seminar on the ins and outs of publishing with three industry professionals. Jill Dawson, author of twelve novels and founder of Gold Dust Writer Mentoring will be joined Emma Shercliff, literary agent at Laxfield Literary Associates (in association with Blake Friedman Literary Agency) and Phoebe Morgan fiction publisher at Hodder and Stoughton and an author of five novels herself, for a conversation that seeks to lift the curtain on the mysteries of publication and offer practical advice on the options open to those who want to see their writing turned into a book. They will cover the pros and cons of writing specific training, go into the nuts and bolts of the submissions process and explain the differences between traditional and author-led routes to publication.

The event will leave plenty of time for audience Q&A, so if you've ever had a burning question about how a book comes to being, this is your opportunity to ask!

Ancient Greece, Today

Ferdia Lennon & Jennifer Saint

Any bookseller would tell you that the popularity of fiction inspired by the stories and plays of Ancient Greece shows no abating. Join us for a conversation with two celebrated authors whose novels have both been inspired by Hellenic history, in very different ways, as they discuss the opportunities and challenges that comes with bringing stories set in the past to a modern audience and why the themes and ideas of Ancient Greece have such resonance and popularity today.

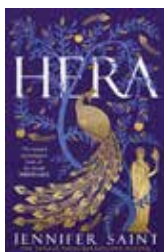

Ferdia Lennon was born and raised in Dublin. He holds a BA in History and Classics from University College Dublin and an MA in Prose Fiction from the University of East Anglia. Glorious Exploits is his first novel. A Sunday Times bestseller, it was adapted for BBC Radio 4 and was the winner of the Waterstones Debut Fiction Prize 2024 and the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prize for Comic Fiction.

Books: Glorious Exploits (Penguin)

Jennifer Saint grew up reading Greek mythology and was always drawn to the untold stories hidden within the myths. She read Classical Studies at King's College, London where she is now a Visiting Research Fellow in the Classics department. After thirteen years as a high school English teacher, she wrote Ariadne which was shortlisted for Waterstones Book of the Year in 2021 and was a Waterstones Book of the Month, as well as being a Sunday Times bestseller. Her second novel, Elektra, and third novel, Atalanta, were number one Sunday Times bestsellers.

Renaturing James Canton

Twenty years ago, James Canton moved from London to the English countryside. Behind his farm labourer's cottage was a small, abandoned field with a 'for sale' sign. James knew that the two-acre patch of earth held more potential – as a place for nature to return and flourish. Even on the smallest of scales we can create habitats to support a greater diversity of nature. A single window box planted with pollinator-friendly flowers can provide a mini-habitat to support honeybees; a tower block with a window box on every balcony becomes an acre of bee-friendly ecosystem. Renaturing shows how the concept of rewilding can be adopted by us all.

Gardening For Climate Change
Sally Morgan & Becky Searle
in conversation with Sue Boase

It's no longer gardening as usual. Heat waves, droughts, flooding, violent storms...the long-predicted extremes of weather caused by climate change are now on our doorstep. We need to learn how to protect the garden against climate extremes, exotic pests, invasive weeds, and more. Climate and weather patterns are changing fast, and our gardening practices need to catch up.

This conversation between author/gardeners Becky Searle and Sally Morgan and Sue Boase from local charity Climate Change Gardening will set you on the right track to future-proof your garden by giving it everything it needs to adapt and succeed, whatever the climate challenge.

11.45am and 3pm Angel Hill opposite the Abbeygate
Literary Bury St Edmunds Walking Tour with Bury Tour Guides

Across the centuries since the mighty Abbey of St Edmund was founded, a surprising number of writers have been inspired by the town in which it sits. From a medieval cellarer right up to a 21st century gothic-rock star, Bury St Edmunds has been the subject matter for novels, poems, songs, plays and occasionally a rip-roaring insult!

This town-centre walk will last around 90 minutes and be illustrated with recorded extracts of some of the works featured.

During the summer months, Bury Tour Guides offer regular daily town tours by trained and experienced guides telling the amazing history of Bury St Edmunds. Throughout the rest of the year they also offer specialist tours such as the Ghostly & Macabre tour; Masters of the Air tour; Foodie tours and many others. www.burystedmundstourguides.org

Blythe Spirit: The Remarkable Life of Ronald Blythe

Ian Collins in conversation with Nicola Upson

Ronald Blythe (1922-2023), author of the inimitable Akenfield, was a prolific and poetic chronicler of rural and spiritual life, nature and literature. He spent a joyful century close to his Suffolk roots, time travelling in his imagination and publishing forty books and thousands of essays.

Drawing on unparalleled access to letters, notebooks, published works, drafts, and conversations from decades of friendship, Ian Collins tells the full story of Ronald Blythe for the first time. The result is a sensitive, revelatory portrait which celebrates a fascinating, complex man and casts new light on one of our greatest writers.

A Mind To Murder - Celebrating PD James

Nicola Upson & Mandy Morton

Bury Literature Festival Honorary Patron Nicola Upson and author Mandy Morton look back on the late PD James's extraordinary life and work, often inspired by the Suffolk landscape that she loved.

Originally curated for a sell-out run at Cambridge University Library, this talk will be illustrated by exclusive audio recordings from Mandy's personal archive, in which PD James discusses her writing and reads from some of her most popular novels. Both Nicola and Mandy enjoyed a long friendship with the author, and this very special event – marking Faber's reissue of the complete Adam Dalgliesh series – will give a unique insight into her creative process and legacy.

Saints Amy Jeffs

AUTHOR

Saints' legends suffused medieval European culture. Their heroes' suffering and wonder-working shaped landscapes, rituals and folk beliefs. Their tales spoke of men raised by wolves, women communing with flocks of birds and severed heads calling from between bristling paws.

In Saints, Sunday Times bestselling author of Storyland and Wild, Amy Jeffs retells legends born of the medieval cult of saints, including our own King Edmund. She draws on 'official' lives, vernacular romances, artworks and obscene poetry, all spanning from the fourth to the sixteenth centuries. The commentaries following the stories offer a history of each saint, and trace the rise and fall of the medieval cult of saints from the first martyrs to the Protestant Reformation.

An evening with... Sarah Perry

Join us for an evening with internationally bestselling and award-winning author Sarah Perry as we introduce her brand-new work of non-fiction Death of an Ordinary Man, on the weekend following its release. We will also discuss her most recent novel, the luminous, Booker Prize long-listed, Enlightenment and reflect on the success of her body of work to date.

Sarah Perry's father-in-law, David, died at home nine days after a cancer diagnosis and having previously been in good health. The speed of his illness outstripped that of the NHS and social care, so the majority of nursing fell to Sarah and her husband. Unflinching and profoundly moving, Sarah Perry confronts the taboo surrounding death and shows us how to confront all of the terror and beauty that comes with the end of life - and how the saddest thing she has ever seen is also the best thing she's ever done.

An evening with... Philippa Gregory

Join Philippa Gregory, one of the world's foremost historical novelists, whose books include The Other Boleyn Girl and The White Queen, as she brings the Boleyn Traitor out of the shadows in an explosive story of one woman's survival in the deadly dance of the Tudor Court.

Over two decades, Philippa Gregory has proved herself an extraordinary chronicler of the forgotten women in history whose lives have been misrecorded and obscured - most recently in her Sunday Times bestselling non-fiction title, Normal Women. Now, she returns to the Tudor court armed with groundbreaking new research, and reframes a woman famously branded as a traitor, but whose real story was far more complex.

Philippa will talk to us about her new novel Boleyn Traitor (publishing 8th October) and take questions from the audience.

There will be a post-show reception including a book signing.
